The light
Heyakorata means "there is hope"

The world was dull and full of darkness.
"Let there be light" then there was gladness
God smiled, "what a great world"!
So He created you, and the world was born for you

Born to embrace beauty and madness and see what our eyes cannot see
And when there are times you feel like losing hope
something so bright will come to shine in your life

CHORUS:
Coz you're that light, that is full of life
There is light in your darkest night
There is faith and hope in the sparkle of your eyes..
And you don't even know, how beautiful you are....

HEYA KORATA (4X)

When you're in pain, you will feel the rain
Then the wind will whisper, to your heart and sing
"the times when you're losing faith, are the times you're at your best"
Your tears are beautiful, and it made you wonderful

Every smile you share to the world is precious and every laugh of yours echoes in our hearts
And when there are times you feel like losing hope
something so bright will come to shine in your life

BRIDGE:

The clock is ticking until when is tomorrow?
You went on and on and the light vanished your sorrow
Embracing every moment, lighting up all your wounds
(repeat CHORUS 2X)

How beautiful yo u are... (2x)
