Didn't break, somebody plea
Is that what you really wanted me to be
I've got to try, may as well
And everybody's tryin' to buy or tryin' to sell
And it's a joke, you can't kill me
As long as what I do can land me on my feet
I'm gonna learn to try as well
And everybody's holdin' tickets to the world
A dozen words, you never get it right
I think I might as well
Even words you're playin' with tonight

It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day

What you say, what do you mean
You gonna throw it at your woman on your feet
But you can try, and me as well
And everybody wants to buy or wants to sell
And 'cause I'm so, you can't kill me
As long as what I do can land me on my feet
I'm gonna right and read as well
And everybody's tryin' to buy or tryin' to sell
A dozen words, I'm sayin' it tonight
I think I might as well
Even words, you never get it right

It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day, do it how you want
It's a layman's day, alright baby

Too late, down by the creek
They're standin' watchin' what they wanted me to be
You're gonna drown
They're gonna drag you back and put you on your knees
You've got to try to move as well
And everybody tries to buy or tries to sell

And it's a joke, you can't kill me
As long as what I do can land me on my feet
There's a word, you never get it right
I think I might as well, in a word, I'm prayin' it tonight

It's a laym
