hu hu hu hu yeah yeah yeah yeah

CHORUS

ho ha ho ha haha i need sunshine i need angels i need need something good and i need them blue skies i need them good times i need something good x4 you know ho ha ho ha haha nananana

all these days seem so far away when i want to see how far away i've come way back when i had not seen half them things i'd never thought i'd see but become someone i'd never thought i'd be all these days seem so fade away as i lost faith in myself question everything i stood for no no women left to look for in life i began to lose all found it harder to cope with everything around me and the people that would doubt me oh i was in a place that i did not want to be seeing face after face that i did not want to see hahayaya

CHORUS

i did not go out of my mind only God knows and all them girls that i used to see running round was like the rain that i used to see pouring down hey hey hey
it did not seem for me

CHORUS x2
