Tell me what's it gonna be this time
Say that I was just fool to believe
You were mine
Cannot imagine life without you by my side
And it's killin my heart
Cause I wish I knew why
Why would you do me this way
When I love you, baby

I believed what you said
But love doesn't have a meaning
When you hurt me so bad
Just threw it all away
You knew I was scared
To once more let you get that close to me
Despite what you did I believed

You said it was gonna be for real this time
You said you were gonna make it up to me
And everything will be fine
Never thought that I would have
To let you go this way
Should've followed my heart
But I fell for the game
Life just would not be the same
Without you, baby

I believed what you said
But love doesn't have a meaning
When you hurt me so bad
Just threw it all away
You knew I was scared
To once more let you get that close to me
Despite what you did I believed

Now what do I say It was you
You that made the choice to walk away
But now love will come my way
Again I don't wanna here you're sorry
Cause you know we've reached the end

I believed what you said
But love doesn't have a meaning
When you hurt me so bad
Just threw it all away
You knew I was scared
To once more let you get that close to me
Despite what you did I believed

I believed
