Sinks too low
My body's forgotten how to float
Treading water's just a joke I can't deliver...

Industry you're sold for free
But you want to, you want to, you want to, 'cos I told you so
Sell it back to me once again
Serve it up if it fails to send
So severe your silver lining
So severe your silver lining

Keep yourself to yourself
Cards close to your chest and I will reign

Sinks too low
My body's forgotten how to float
Treading water's just a joke I can't deliver
Named my price too low
Named my price
I volunteer this sinking boat
I volunteer this sinking boat

Out at sea you're bought for free
But you love to, you love to, you love to cos I told you so
I staked a claim for the setting sun
But now it's adopted by everyone
So severe your silver lining
So severe your silver lining

Keep yourself to yourself
Cards close to your chest and I will rain down

But your lover's not okay
And I sent it further
Further than the rest
But he stands beside me

Sinks too low
My body's forgotten how to float
Treading water's just a joke I can't deliver
Named my price too low

Named my price
I volunteer this sinking boat
I volunteer this sinking boat

Keep holding your breath
Keep holding your breath
Keep holding your breath for an answer
Cos I can't swim but you won't listen

Keep holding your breath
Keep holding your breath
Keep holding your breath for an answer
Cos I can't swim but you won't listen

Sinks too low
My body's forgotten how to float
Treading water's just a joke I can't deliver
I can't deliver
I can't deliver
Can't deliver

Named my price too low
Named my price
I volunteer this sinking boat

Sinks too low
My body's forgotten how to float
Treading water's just a joke I can't deliver
Named my price too low
Named my price
I volunteer this sinking boat
I volunteer this sinking boat
