You

You ask me 'bout my night
Don't even try to act surprised
You know exactly what I do

Some say the grail is out of reach
Although you've got to hand it to me
I've still got so much more to do

You pull back and go for the curtains
But I both don't and want you to cave in now
I you c-c-can't change my ceremony

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for your eyes
But seen at half the size

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for protection, need for resurrection
Haven't you heard that crusaders don't do it for me

Where do I sign for to own what you do
And where's the contract that keeps me
You were saying sew the seams
When you were watching over me

But I don't see it, I don't see it, I don't see it,
I just feel me lift off the ground
And solder when my senses call
Now senses choose what I do

You pull back and go for the curtains
But I both don't and want you to cave in now
I you c-c-can't change my ceremony

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for your eyes
But seen at half the size

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for protection, need for resurrection
Haven't you heard that crusaders don't do it for me

No, no it shouldn't be this good...(x7)

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for your eyes
But seen at half the size

The sheets are folding at the corners
But, hey, they're only words
Solely for protection, need for resurrection
Haven't you heard that crusaders don't do it for me

The sheets are folding at the corners
Damn right I'm used to giving orders
(You're just a lover)

The sheets are folding at the corners
Damn right I'm used to giving orders
(You're just a lover)

The sheets are folding at the corners
Damn right I'm used to giving orders
(You're just a lover)

The sheets are folding at the corners
Damn right I'm used to giving orders now
(You're just a lover)
