Chorus

You're my Joy - You're my fears, you're my comfort in time of need
You're my refuge - you're my rock you're the one I depend on
You're the road to hope when the light grows dim
When the waves of doubt come crashing in You're my anchor in the troubled storm Almighty God!

Chorus

You're my Joy -you're my peace, you're my comfort in
time of need
You're my refuge- you're my rock- you're the one I
depend on
You're the road to hope when the light grows dim
When the waves of doubt come crashing in
You're my anchor in the troubled storm Almighty God!

You bore the Cross You bare the Scars
You're my bright and shining Star

You gave me sight that I might see
The kind of (man, woman)that I should be
You came to die to set me free Almighty God !

You bore the Cross You bare the Scars
You're my bright and shining Star
You gave me sight that I might see
the kind of (man, woman) that I should be
You came to die to set me free Almighty God !

You're my Joy- you're my peace, you're my comfort in
time of need
You're my refuge- you're my rock- you're the one I
depend on
You're the road to hope when the light grows dim
When the waves of doubt come crashing in
You're my anchor in the troubled storm Almighty God!
