We are all leavers
Starting from the same place
Makers and creators separate
Into one

Center planet, why do we spin out of orbit
Twisting out of the galaxy
Too powerful to control the movement
Acting too upset you still can't stop anything
We are all orphans, shadows to ourselves
The group must stand up tall alone

Running, Running, Running out of time
Capture me from the break of the sky

Orphans, Orphans
Shadow to ourselves
Believe me, Read me
This is from my heart

Us six will be put to the test
All of us alone
With no unity
Push me deeper into the rock
Let me heal, let me cry

Center planet, why do we spin out of orbit
Twisting out of the galaxy
Too powerful to control the movement
Acting too upset you still can't stop anything
We are all orphans, shadows to ourselves
The group must stand up tall alone

Running, Running, Running out of time
Capture me from the break of the sky
Chasing shadows on the road to ourselves
Leaving mystery as far as we go

Flying faster
Flying past me
You're too far away
I can't reach the others, the bird has broke his wings

Flying faster
Flying solo
You're too far away
I can't reach the others, the bird has broke his wings

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Running, Running, Running out of time
Capture me from the break of the sky
Chasing shadows on the road to ourselves
Leaving mystery as far as we go
