And the King and the war rage down like a tiger hunting through the bloody hour
For the thirsty souls mother moon shine down her power
And the love stay strong and whole despite the whispers in the night
And the Kingdom come and the Kingdom changed
What was wrong is right And the Prince and the dandelion ..?.. people always in his sight
And the rose and the dandelion walked hand in hand
into velvet night
And the King and the love stay strong like a ? burning through the cloudy sky
The moon and the stars shine bright in the night time sky
There were some that would and some that should Some that would never understand How our love could stay and a war could rage
In search of blood stain And the Prince and the dandelion ? people always in his sight
And the rose and the dandelion walked hand in hand
into velvet night
Into the velvet night
And the King and the love rage down like a tiger
hunting through the bloody hour
For the thirsty souls mother moon sent here everlasting
power
And some that could and some that would... understand her
And the Kingdom come and the Kingdom changed
What's good now is bad
And the Prince and the dandelion ..?.. people always in
his sight
And the rose and the dandelion walked hand in hand
into velvet night
The rose and the dandelion into the night
The rose and the dandelion walked hand in hand into velvet night
Into the velvet night, night, night, night
Into the velvet night
