Sad, sad me, know what you're wishing
But you're making your entrance a bit too late
Sad, sad me, I hear your confession
But you'll get no repentance from me

All we have is here today, that's all we had to say
Giving your sadness, giving your sadness away

Sad, sad heart, I feel you breaking
But there is a place that you can go
Far far away but still deep inside you
I know that with hope there is a way

This could be our greatest day
Close your eyes and feel your way
Giving your sadness, giving my sadness
Living our sadness away

Sad, sad me, I hear your confession
And you'll get your repentance from me
Find in you another day
Close your eyes I'll lead the way

Giving your sadness, giving my sadness
Giving our sadness away

There is a place for you out there
I know that you will find the way
Leave your fears in yesterday
Give all your sadness away

Giving your sadness, sad, sad me
Giving your sadness, sad, sad me
Giving your sadness, sad, sad me
