In the lap of a man she dances away the past
And in the act she plans to be the chance he takes
On a date that lasts
Just long enough to feel the daylight
Pass through his arms
In a way eyes who'd reach
If could explain she might believe if he would stay
If he would say I will wait to see you wake
If for my sake to read your smile
Till you realize that I've been here all this time
By fate and will if you are mine
I'll break and spill this youth of mine
Who seeks to bind this trust of yours
And feed this lust on open doors

You see I'm out of here after we lay around
Now that I'm loud in your head
Find your way down
There aint no light here
This aint a play ground
You say to fight fair
I say now face down
Cus baby is just a name I give you ladies
Who should know better then to follow
A crazy idea that maybe you can behave me
It's never easy to swallow the truth
There's just no love in me
To swallow the truth
There's just no love
There's just no loving me

Say the eyes she reads
Through his lips come lies of the life he leads
And the cup he holds
With his lust comes woe and yet her mind concedes

Till the body follows
Till the body lay hollow
Till it's hard to swallow
In deed hell bind this trust of yours
And feed his lust on open doors
Of broken boys come broken men

Who search for words with broken pens
Who cling to flesh as if to peek on greater worlds
They'll never seek
How clever is her man
Obscene
Forever in her fantasy
If ever she a plan to be happy
She'll stand and leave.

Truth
To swallow the truth
There's just no love
Now that I'm loud in your head
Find your way down
Who should know better then to follow
A crazy idea that maybe you can behave me
It's never easy to swallow the truth
To swallow the truth
There's just no love
