(one, two, three, four)

Well I'm naked with you, in this third story oxford, wow I'm shaking with you, huge feelings, huge feelings, while you feel them too, but in a different way than i do, yeah I'm im all curled up by you, little in love too, little in love!

When we didnt get it clear, and we didnt get it clear, (hmmmmnnnn)

'Coz I need someone to,
really give myself up to,
and you want it too,
our hearts are open but,
rarely spoken to by anyone, that language frightens them, (whooooo!)

And your not made of iron, infact your more scared than I am, infact you're more scared than me, and you got less power than men, coz men have driven you crazy,
and we never get it clear,

really give myself up to,
and you want it too,
our hearts are open but,
are rarely spoken to by anyone,
that language frightens them,

'Coz tho I miss you,
when I kiss you,
we rarely let go,

and I want to go,
off to that feeling,
off to the ceiling, whats this hour in,
where we only just begin?

What'd you do when you're blown apart, blown apart?
Love is hard like Napoleon Bonaparte, you loosen the blue streak through you, who can deny a voice that is so true?
I'm amazed by you darling, Even though you treat me like Joseph Stalin, I'm gonna train my heart like a shoalin, Monk, that'll never throw the towel in,

Cause I need someone to,
our hearts are open but are rarely spoken to by anyone

So clear your room out clear your mind out out clear your eyes out
clear your soul out
you pour your heart out you pour your heart out, to me oh
