You are like a fire alarm
With all your looks and charm
But I've been burned, one too many times

You know just what to say
But I don't believe a thing,
Coming from those lips full of lies
I can see right through the smoke in my eyes

Baby, you'll remember this old flame
Lay awake at night and call my name
Wish I was there
I'm through with you, so I'm pullin' on my boots
Take my heal, and grind our love into the ground
Gonna stomp the fire out.

I held on way too long
You float and then you're gone
Like smoke rings blowing in the midnight sky
I ain't a comin' back
You already struck that match
Lit the fuse, just to let it die
Baby, you can kiss our love goodbye

Baby, you'll remember this old flame
Lay awake at night and call my name
Wish I was there
I'm through with you, so I'm pullin' on my boots
Take my heal, and grind our love into the ground
Gonna stomp the fire out.

You can fight fire with fire
And I'm letting go with this desire
I've held on way too long
Gotta go, gotta, gotta, get gone now
Gotta go, gotta gotta, get gone

Baby, you'll remember this old flame
Lay awake at night and call my name
Wish I was there
I'm through with you, so, I'm pullin' on my boots

Take my heal, and grind our love into the ground
Gonna stomp the fire out.

We can stomp this fire out
(Gotta go, gotta, gotta, get gone now)
You can fight fire with fire
(Gotta go, gotta, gotta, get gone now)
