"Skinny"

I am skinny, and i am faithful to the last
But I'll play games with you like a hormone in a high school class
And i can be thoughtful, I can be awful when i want to be
You said if we never grow up, then we'll never grow old

You are slender, oh so slender
And I like it
Skinny like a model, with a little something extra in her eyes
And I've got some time to kill
If your free and your willing
But if you never show up, then you'll never know
I want what you want

We're two souls, in tango
But we're too strong, we're too strong
'Cause I want what you want
But you just give me something i need

You are talking, I'm sat talking at the other end
You say you might drop by, if i don't mind
No, I won't mind
Now you're coming over look over your shoulder
Where would you rather be?
And if you never show up then you'll never know
That I want what you want

We're two souls, in tango
But we're too strong, we're too strong
'Cause I want what you want
But you just give me something I need

'Cause I want what you want

We're two souls, in tango
But we're too strong, we're too strong
'Cause I want what you want
But you just give me something I need

We're two souls, in tango
But we're too strong, we're too strong
'Cause I want what you want
But you just give me something I need
