You and me used to be so shy
I didn't dare look you in the eyes
And now we bite each other's nose
And now we rip each other's clothe

I'm your body addict
You're my body addict
I love you you love me
You love me I love you
I love you

You and me it's like a house on fire
People say we look pretty good together
I never thought you'd be my lover

Though I hoped many times more than I remember

I'm your body addict
You're my body addict
I love you you love me
You love me I love you
I love you

You and me it's like a house on fire
People say we look pretty good together
I never thought you'd be my lover
Though I hoped many times more than I remember
