This time, it's you that had a chance to runaway
This time, it's you that had a chance to runaway

Verse

eyes closed no tellin where I might go my goal is for me to be aight so I've grown I tried it all twice now I gotta find a way to turn dark into a light show make life move shit what's a dead end besides another fence I could drive through live fun die faster but you could tell fate I don't plan to take that last turn

Chorus

Late night, driving with your eyes closed
Don't lie, its better that we don't know Where are we going? Where are we going?
I think I'm home

Before I left, kissed my mother on the forehead I'll be back ma but I don't really know when wait, she said don't you got a plan I said what the hell's a plan when they always go the wrong way yea, I don't plan to plan anything I already forgot what the hell happened yesterday but I'll handle it bet you I could stand and win without glancing at a clock or a calendar without searching for a guide or a manual living in my car dipping crackers on my Campbell's soup yea, I say whatever it takes I'll be driving blindfolded never hitting the breaks see, what we could find soon as we stop trying to be happy, we could have a pretty good time one dream is the weapon for this cuz I'ma tell you one thing, I aint destiny's bitch

Chorus

Late night, driving with your eyes closed
Don't lie, its better that we don't know
Where are we going? Where are we going?
I think I'm home

yea look I got my boots laced come baby pass the suitcase and I promise Ima see you in a few days you know I'm listening to everything that you say but you and I both know that its too late I can't stay if I ever plan to do great I'm a rock star baby it's a new day I'm not far from broads and hot cars, to drugs that've gone wrong to encores on a huge stage

Chorus

Late night, driving with your eyes closed
Don't lie, its better that we don't know
Where are we going? Where are we going?
I think I'm home

This time, it's you that had a chance to runaway

Chorus

Late night, driving with your eyes closed
Don't lie, its better that we don't know Where are we going? Where are we going?
I think I'm home
