Verse

There's no one to love, when push comes to shove
We're so far away, but still worth the wait
Bridges collapse and her tears turn to ash
You're the clock on the wall that continues to tick

Chorus

Maybe, you'll lock the door and toss the key
Maybe, a shooting star is all I see
Maybe, if I list my reason A to Z
Maybe you'll come back to me

Verse

There's no one to love, its 5:31

You're the sun in the sky shining tonight
I thought if I tried I could make time rewind
But I'm thinking tonight that our world isn't right

Chorus

Maybe, you'll lock the door and toss the key
Maybe, a shooting star is all I see
Maybe, if I list my reason A to Z
Maybe you'll come back to me

Chorus

Maybe, you'll lock the door and toss the key
Maybe, a shooting star is all I see
Maybe, if I list my reason A to Z
Maybe you'll come back to me
