V: I feel like I'm in a bad dream, A place that I can't wake up from my sleep, these things that I see all around me, as my heart just stops in disbelief. I can't believe all things people say and do, all a while that they're claiming that they Love You. I can see that the problem is deep within, It's that they're prisoners of their own skin.

C: Am I the only one that remembers where You brought me from, I will not stand aside and watch these stones cry. Show me how to live again, A breth of life from where I am, within this church I die, among the ash I rise.

V: As they stumble as they fall, they wonder out all alone, I rm=emember when the tough times came they pushed You away, O Lord, they pushed You away

C: Am I the only one that remembers where You
the ash I rise.
