V: Some may say I'm crazy, some may say i've lost my mind, but these words they won't hurt me, there's something deeper I must find. They don't see what I see, everytime I close my eyes, i look beyond myself to find myself alive.

C: Pardon me I'm passing through, I won't be here for long. the spirit takes me by the hand, and leads me where I go. See I'm a stranger to this world, just on my way back home.

V: With every breath I take, your spirit guides the way, and I can't wait, for that day. when this life will end, and my eternity begins, forever with You

C: Pardon me I'm passing through, I won't be here for long. the spirit takes me by the hand, and leads me where I go. See I'm a stranger to this world, just on my way back home.

See I'm a stranger to this world, just on my way back home.
