I do try to relax but I get up and move instead,
Yeah it helps to forget what's going on upstairs,
Cause my life is spent around achieving those highs,
I never let her play on my mind
Play on my mind, you should come here and say hi,
Cause even on a rainy day, when the shades are grey,
I will dance away, I will dance away
I won't take away when I'm making shapes
I will dance away,
I'll be dance like, and we jiggle like
and we bop like, and we skank like and we jive like and we swing like, and we dance like

Yeah, I'm quick and clever like the British weather Innit yeah I'll get you in to kicks but you ain't cinderella Better pick'n'mix a blender make the chicks look better Thinking about the theory, makes me wish that I was pissed forever,
There's a girl I liked in class we used to sit together,
I made stuff up so she would think i would a mystic fella,
Only recently we spoke her name was rose and yeah, she got the seal of approval when she kissed it better, What, what, yeah, I kill it turning words into pictures like I was flipping hieroglyphics,
Ever since i was kiddish now I'm rhyming sickest,
Your girl text me with like nine kisses I'm with it!

My life is spent around achieving those highs,
I never let her play on my mind
Play on my mind, you should come here and say hi,
Cause even on a rainy day, when the shades are grey,
I will dance away, I will dance away
I won't take away when I'm making shapes
I will dance away,
I'll be dance like, and we jiggle like
and we bop like, and we skank like
and we jive like and we swing like, and we dance like

I'm bringing the golden age, I know that England's cold but hey,
I'm here to try and scold your face,

With punches that can roll a paste, On the oldest day nothing much was golden but the rings that the boys were holding would leave a inprint in your forehead yeah,
The ones i tried to mimic but i would like to visit,
The golden age the market vibe though catch it init, Your there for times of thinking and maybe lifes the shittest but then i see the brighter side and try to smile its wicked!

My life is spent around achieving those highs,
I never let her play on my mind
Play on my mind, you should come here and say hi,
Cause even on a rainy day, when the shades a Gray,
I will dance away, I will dance away
I won't take away when I'm making shapes
I will dance away,
I'll be dance like, and we jiggle like
and we bop like, and we skank like
and we jive like and we swing like, and we dance like
