I'm gonna quit you. I'm gonna quit you.
I gotta quit you... I gotta quit you.

It's been a long time coming around. Your sun is rising,
and mine is going downs.
See your face around town, and when I sleep. I don't make promises, but there's one I hope I keep.
I'm gonna quit you.

You are the sweetest thing, the sweetest thing I never had.
You are the sweetest thing, the sweetest thing I never had.

I'll never get you... ohh I gotta quit you.
It's been along time coming around. Every time I tried to put you down.
Sometimes I'm all dried up, sometimes I nearly drown.
When I'm so lost, that's where you are found.
Ohh I gotta quit you. I won't forget you. But ohh I gotta quit you.
I gotta quit you. Ohh I'm gonna quit you.
