Chorus

Stuck in the mud, stuck in a rut.
Been looking for love, found everything but.
Lord only knows when I'll rise above.
Meanwhile I'll be. and she, yes we will be...
Stuck in the mud, stuck in a rut.
Been looking for love, found everything but.
Lord only knows when I'll rise above.
Meanwhile I'll be. and she, yes we will be...

Can't do the math, can't find no reason. Walk the same damn path every god dang season.

Chorus

It's a damn disgrace, and it's a crying shame. Got no one else but myself to blame.
It's a crying shame, it's a damn disgrace. Even when you get yourself unstuck your slinging mud all over the place.
Just doing our best just to stay alive. Let's kick this thing into 4 wheel drive.
