Why does love have to be so possessive? I can't give you all of me, I won't take all of you.
I find myself feeling disconnected. I guess that's the reason I love singin' the blues
I guess that's the reason I love singing' the blues.

Why does this world have to be so oppressive? Why can't we all live as one, like the fortunate few.
We find ourselves feeling disconnected. I guess that's the reason we love singing' the blues

We don't know how to change the weather, even if we were all to get together
We ain't all birds of a feather, it's plain to see. It's alright with me. Let's just let it be. Just live in peace

Well I got home one Monday afternoon. Just to find out I had been broken in to.
I got home to late, or the thief left too soon. He took all my babies out my music room.
I could not believe what I'd seen. They shattered the window in my tv room and stole my flat screen.
My heart was beating loud and fast and it wouldn't stop. When I told the police man, "damn, they got my laptop"
It's just alright, it's just material things. Let's go down the road and get us some chicken wings. Maybe a cold beer. a glass of wine.
I've still got my good friends and I can still have a good time. He'll get his and I'll get mine.

We don't know how to change the weather, even if we were all to get together
We ain't all birds of a feather, it's plain to see. It's alright with me. Let's just let it be. Just live in peace

I guess that's the reason we love singing the blues
I guess that's the reason we love singing the blues
I guess that's the reason we love singing the blues
I guess that's the reason we love singing the blues
