In a foreign country where she doesn't know the language
She happened to be, looking for sites to see in Florence, Italy.
So she gets lisa on the phone says she's been traveling alone
"Would you like to meet in the middle?"

And she's drunk and stuck on a subway train
Going No way but the wrong way.
In her brain she can hear the same refrain
"Get me off this train!"

She's thinking in her mind, that she doesn't have the time
Only a few days left, and she wanted them well spent.
Can't find the conductor who created the whole cluster
Held up the wrong sign, what a sucker!

And she's drunk and stuck on a subway train
Going No way but the wrong way.
In her brain she can hear the same refrain
"Get me off this train!"

And she's drunk and stuck on a subway train
Going No way but the wrong way.
In her brain she can hear the same refrain
"Get me off this train!"
