Lovely
Is what you are
But I can see
We were meant to be apart
Some good more bad times
So frequently
I need someone who loves me for me

Baby please
Why can't you see
It's not your fault
It's what's best for you and me
We tried so hard
Did all we could do
Through it all we discovered
That I'm not for you

Who knows
Someday I know I'll find
Good love is rare
I read between the lines
I hope that you can see
This sad but hard reality
I wish you all the best
Goodbye, God bless

Some good more bad times
So frequently
I need someone who love me for me
Now
Right now
