"Mamacita"

It was later in the evening
On a warm summer night
Grooving to some music
Reminiscing life
I've got a woman in my heart
She so fine
We hit it off from the start
Tonight I'm gonna make her mine

Mamacita, give me your hands
Mamacita, you've put me in a trance
Mamacita, you know its true
Mamacita, I've falling for you

We got together at midnight
A moment of bliss
Tequila sunrise
The taste on her lips
She looked to me seductively
And whispers fearlessly
I knew she was the one for me
Now nothing could come between us

Mamacita, give me your hands
Mamacita, you've put me in a trance
Mamacita, you know its true
Mamacita, I've falling for you
