Why aren't we doing down
Ain't nobody to save me now
Everybody said it was on his way
What the hell is this about
I can't just figure it out
I don't think I am ready for today
And I try to see the sun
But the clouds get in the way
I never thought it will end up this way
Look into the mirror like everybody else
But I don't recognize myself
There is so much to say
But I don't think they will understand
I gotta find a way
Cause know I got the world in my hands
Girl what are you gonna do? (repeats)
You see me in the darkest days
You see the sun fade away
Nothing is gonna stop you anymore
And I am walking into the days I won't be afraid
I will walk to that door
And I try to see the sun
But the clouds get in the way
I never thought it will end up this way
Look into the mirror like everybody else
But I don't recognize myself
There is so much to say
But I don't think they will understand
I gotta find a way
Cause know I got the world in my hands
Girl what are you gonna do? (repeats)

Nothing is getting in my way
I've been waiting for this day
Better run and tell somebody
I ain't stopping I ain't stopping
(repeats)

There is so much to say
But I don't think they will understand
I gotta find a way

Cause know I got the world in my hands
Girl what are you gonna do? (repeats)
