

Noah & The Whale "Christmas time"

Well, it's Christmas time inside your brand new room
With heavy heart you leave your life behind you
Oh but soon these walls won't feel so new
Oh this house'll feel like a home to you

Oh and memories of Christmasses before you
Oh and memories of those that can't be with you
Old faces will be sure to make you frail
But there are knew ones around your Christmas table

Oh well Christmas can play heavy on your head
Oh the food and wine will lay you down to bed
Oh the children will fall asleep too
Oh they'll fall asleep just to fall asleep by you

Oh and soon this Christmas too will be old
And a new year and new time will unfold
Oh your hands will wear in you door
Oh your feet will wear in you floor

Christmas time isn't Christmas time without you
