Well I have nothing
I have no one and I've been so quickly set free and I love nothing I love no one are words that you wisper in my mind to someone I don't know
to someone I don't know to someone I so walk with me on this new spring morning I'll walk you til your fears are numb I'm a new baby weeping and the flower you're keeping that without love will wilt and die

I need your light in my life need your light in my life need your light
so come back to me my darling come back to me my darling I'd do anything to be at your side I'd be anyone to be at your side

I need your light in my life
need your light
