Why do I want you?
now that I can't have you.
Why did'nt I just want you
*back when I had you
back when I had you*

You liked me better from the outside, looking in, was the the end.
cuz' you got lost and wanted inside. fumbling, how frightening.
I guess you thought you bought the concept.
No package deal then.
You pay extra for gurantee you need security but that ain't me.

Why do I want you?
now that I can't have you.
Why did'nt I just want you
*back when I had you
back when I had you*

Guess you were tested on you patience, your education, your entension.
And you turned out to be ambitious.
Diggin' in my abdomen, yeah yeah
And then when finally you got there all of this yeah yeah yeah what's like as if you wanted guarantees you need security that just ain't here.

Why do I want you?
now that I can't have you.
Why did'nt I just want you
*back when I had you
back when I had you*

I admit that I realized to late

I was scared and I didn't think straight but you're a fucking liar I don't believe anything you say you can't force your love on someone and then just walk away, you can't walk away, you can't walk away, you can't walk away, you can't walk away,
walk away, you can't walk away like that.

Why didn't I just want you
*back when I had you
back when I had you*
