Everyone's blindfolded
And don't no one see but me.
I'm losin' my mind
Hopin' that one day
You'll see with me.
Just look at the signs
Notice the way we get treated.
We just hold it inside
While they control us in secrecy.
They say we ain't wanted here
But no we ain't runnin' scared.
Not in a hundred years.
Everything's comin' clear.
Might seem like they got us now, woah.
But they know they can't knock us down.

If a tree falls
And don't nobody here of it
Does it sound?
Does it sound?
If a building falls
And don't nobody see the bricks hit the ground
Does it count?

They want us to disappear
I know we not wanted here.
But problems don't float away
So no we won't go away.
Might seem like they got us down, woah.
But they know they can't stop us now.

Everyone's blindfolded
And don't no one see but me.
I'm losin' my mind
Because they tell us repeatedly
Just living's a crime
Imprisoned in my community.
The signals and signs,
They tryin' to take
All that's true to me.
'Cause no we ain't wanted here

But no we ain't runnin' scared.
Not in a hundred years
Everything's comin' clear.
I've seen how they watch us now, woah.
'Cause they know they can't knock us down.

If a tree falls
And don't nobody here of it
Does it sound?
Does it sound?
If a building falls
And don't nobody see the bricks hit the ground
Does it count?

They want us to disappear
I know we not wanted here.
But problems don't float away
So no we won't go away.
Might seem like they got us down, woah.
But they know they can't stop us now.

Know they can't stop us now.
