She is so drama,
They say
When they pass my way!
Even my own Mama,
She smiles for me when I go insane
People like informal,
Written in the row
Other they don't know
For me it's like normal,
When others call my life is show
They say I'm crazy,
Cause today I'm weak but tomorrow strong
Don't say I'm hazy,
Just call my name I'll come along

Pray for some peace on my mind
And love me, I'm one of your kind
So later, I'm strong when I breath,
But most time I'm on my knees

Drama Queen!
That's what they say when they pass my way,
When I lay down and pray
Drama Queen! (Oooh Yeaah!)
Noone between since I'm a teen,
Oh, I'm such a Drama Queen!

I left all and all cried out,
I'm like this since I'm thirteen
Sometimes I'm black, sometimes I'm white
But never in between! Uuuh Yeah!

My favourite passion -
I mess my rise and break some hearts
Like fading fashion,
I drink my drinks, play my curse
But when I lose my last days,
He feels for her - cause she's so nice!
What a slap in my face
And Drama Queen is not what he's like.

Pray for some peace on my mind

And love me, I'm one of your kind
So later, I'm strong when I breath,
But most time I'm on my knees!
Yeaaaaaah!

Drama Queen
That's what they say when they pass my way,
When I lay down and pray
Drama Queen (Uuuh Yeah!)
Noone between since I'm a teen,
Oh I'm such a Drama Queen!

I left all and all cried out,
I'm like this since I'm thirteen
Sometimes I'm black, sometimes I'm white
But never in between! Uuuh!

Pray for peace on my mind
Don't wanna be blind
Don't wanna regret
Being one of the sky
Sometimes I'm like storm
And sometimes I'm breeze
But most of the time fell on my knees

Drama Queen
That's what they say when they pass my way,
When I lay down and pray
Drama Queen (Oooh Yeah!)
Noone between since I'm a teen,
Oh I'm such a Drama Queen!

I left all and all cried out,
I'm like this since I'm thirteen
Sometimes I'm black, sometimes I'm white
But never in between!
Uuuuuh!

Everyday I do so pride,
Find my changing point of view
Now that girl can be so nice
And always feel it's true! Yeah!

And if you don't like drama, go back to your Mama!
