And when the angel sing

I want you by my side

I don't care how long I've been waiting for my baby

And when the angel spring

you're back here in my life

and I know it's true

that I love you

I was so blind I was so wrong

The day we met have never leave my mind

I thought you play some foolish game but know my heart tells me I was wrong

And then you come along i let you inside cause I am ready I can't waiting anymore

And when the angel sing

for my baby

and I know it's true

that I love you

Each night Iâve pray that youâll come back

I can't deny what I feel inside of me

The music plays one special song the words that they say

I hope theyâll bring you home

And then you come along I let you inside

cause I am ready I can't wait anymore

And when the angels sing

I want you by my side

I don't care how long Iâve been waiting

for my baby

youâre back here in my life and I know itâs true

that I love you

I know I cry so many times

I know I send you back in your way

I was wrong

And when the angels sing

that I love you
