You might think that things have changed
But you make sure as hell, THE STAY THE SAME
Your ignorance makes you incompetent, so narrowminded!
You are like a spreading disease, making me sick when i hear your interpretation on everyday life
And criticizing the things we care about

What were you thinking - THINKING ABOUT!?
What were you planning - PLANNING TO DO!?
You have that special talent, unable to see
You left me no choice, all i can do, is hate you

Illuminated by confidence, it must be why YOU BROUGHT IT ON, while you were dancing and having fun

The path you have chosen is dead and frozen
Your degrading words of saying
You've pulled your card
And left you nothing but scars

What were you thinking - THINKING ABOUT!?
What were you planning - PLANNING TO DO!?
You have that special talent, unable to see
You left me no choice, all i can do, is hate you

You might think that things have changed
But you make sure as hell they stay, the same
Your ignorance make you inkompetent

SO NARROWMINDED
