Most of us have a special place we like to visit Because we actually feel good being there. What we hear in that place has a lot to do with it.

Here, boy... come here, boy.

If the sounds are soothing, Our pulse rate drops, Our muscles relax, We feel at peace.

All too often though, when we stop to listen to great music We settle for sound that is only average.

What great music deserves Is full deep bass To give it warmth.

Come.

Special place..
