Adorn yourself with scars again, and fuck until you're true
And masturbate with your gun again, for reasons shot with blue
You wait (does she love you?)
For her
Come clean
You must

Seductive scars grace your back again, 'cause inside her you're free
And perfect heels and a blistered kiss will lift you from your knees
You wait (does she love you?)
For her
Come clean

You must

Don't fall for her again she lies with your simpler friends
Do not begin anew the pale pain that smothers you You know she's the perfect thing to love, smash and swallow you
You cannot begin again the golden moment's gone and still you wait

Come back down to this again
Does she love you? (does she love you?)
Does she love you
For good
Good
