Can I get your number baby, hit me with the 7 digits

Can I get your number baby, hit me with the

When you walked through that door

I nearly lost my mind

Your sexy attitude and something about your smile

I knew right then and there

I had to know your name

I had a crush before but this just ain't the same

'Cause I've never fallen in love before

With a girl I didn't even know

And there is something about you

That tells me that I should be down

Chorus:

I've been East, I've been West,

Even all around the world

But I've never seen a girl like you

I've seen blondes, and brunettes and some really hot redheads

But I've never seen a girl like you

Can I get your number baby, hit me with the 7 digits

Must be a supermodel, you're a perfect 10

Your body is off the hook and girl I must confess
If you were on display I'd wait all week in line
Please check my vision 'cause I can't believe my eyes
'Cause I've never fallen in love before
With a girl I didn't even know
And there is something about you
That tells me that I should be down

(Chorus
