It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you know how
It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you're doing it now

I know that your love was mine doing
But it shown only that got in the way
Whenever things, it got a little trouble
You pack it up and take a holiday

It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you know how
It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you're doing it now

We've got to trust each other blindly
Only then will we have eyes to see

What we make of life, it never comes easy
Our hearts are tempered by adversity

Just as the baby cries out for its mother
So we all have to cry out for each other
And like a willow bending with the breeze
So we're bending with each other's knees

It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you know how
It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you're doing it now

It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you know how
It's so easy when you know what you're doing
It's so easy when you're doing it now
