Deliverance of a dealer
I took the cards to hold
When I found them out all jokers
It was too late to fold
Anticipation the antagonist

Hope was my home
Now flooded with disappointment
No flaws to the this failure
No flaws to the this failure
No flaws to the this failure

All these walls collapse
All my walls collapse
She's just a relapse
All these walls collapse
All my walls collapse
She's just a relapse

Deliverance of a dealer
I took the cards to hold
When I found them out all jokers
I had been sold
It was too late to fold
No flaws of this failure
There's no flaws to this failure

No excuses
No more fraud
No more excuses
You're a fucking lie

I can't believe (it's been a year)
Remain a scar (remain a scar)
We'll remain a scar (it's all we are)
I can't believe it's been a year
It's so damn hard cause,
We'll remain a scar it's all we are
