I'll keep you under the floor
Don't force me to tell

I am acute with such narrow views
They opened so rapidly just begging for catastrophe
I fear my secret untold will unfold in your hands
I could never see myself with you
The pure sensation never it never saw us though
I guess it's in my head
I thought to pull this off would fulfill me
And all the lust simply embed with pain
She's one less book on this shelf of books that I've read

I guess it's in my head
I could never see myself with you
The pure sensation never saw us though

Love keep this a secret
They'll never, they'll never know

Love keep this a secret
They'll never know
Love keep this a secret
Love keep this a secret
Love keep this a secret
They'll never know
I'll keep you under the floor
Don't force me to tell

I guess it's in my head
I thought to pull this off would fulfill me
And all the lust simply embed with pain
She's one less book on this shelf of books that I've read
I'll keep you under the floor
Don't force me to tell
Love keep this a secret
They will never know
