It's all a lie, it's nothing more than a disguise
It's all a lie, I simply lost my way
Every last lie all the details had their fifteen of fame
It's all a lie, it's nothing more than a disguise
My dreams are more than fame and this red carpet

I'm worth a million dollars
There's no persuading me now

You chose to fail (x2)

You're just a worthless entity
You lied to me
You're just a worthless entity

I'm worth more than your weight in gold
I am the taste of what you want because I'm all that you've got
Are we alive?
Cause I'm losing my fucking mind
Are we alive cause I'm losing my fucking mind

Are you alive? Are you breathing?
Am I alive? Are we breathing?
Won't you part the sea with me?
I could use the space to breath

My dreams are more than fame and this red carpet
I'm worth a million dollars
There's no persuading me now

You chose to fail (x2)

You're just a worthless entity
You lied to me
You're just a worthless entity

Come part the sea with me
