I've never cared before.
Love comes and goes.
But, he hooked me.
No question in my mind.

Ahhh ahhh. Ooooo. What can I say? But I want you.
What can I say? I just want you.

So, what can I say but I want you.
So, how can it be that you're just like me?
So, what can I do to make you part of me?

Attractions moving me.
It's how we ebb and flow.
Enough to keep me.
There's nothing I want more.

Ahhh ahhh. Ooooo. What can I say? But I want you.
What can I say? I just want you.

So, what can I say but I want you.
So, how can it be that you're just like me?
So, what can I do to make you part of me?
