

Thirty Day Notice "The Happy Dead"

Visit "The Happy Dead" on MotoLyrics.com

How did we get so dim? Our light has rusted. I look in the mirror, can you recognize? Remember when we were so bright and alive? Now we're like corpses wandering in a daze. The journey here blew out our fire. We can rekindle the debris. We're numb anyway.

The happy dead, we've become. Yes we know but we won't admit it.

Are you happy dead? Are you happy dead? Are you just so happily dead?

Why can't we connect? Just turn on the TV. Not in the mood to feel, won't ask you to be real but each day we're losing time we're too busy paying stupid bills but soon it will be too late.

The happy dead, we've become. Yes we know but we won't admit it.

I think you should know. You're still asleep in the game. Now just a pawn in the box. You've bought all of the lies. I can't believe you don't know.

It's time to know.....you've been highjacked.
