REACHING FORWARD

Lyrics by Linnea Jonsson

Music by Those Dancing Days

I'm inside of me
Searching through things
Trying hard to find
Pieces to match
Together in life

Rearranging
My confusing thoughts
Trying hard to find
Feelings that I
Can bring back alive

I believe in so much more
Than just being nice and saying alright
I deserve to be this good
Don't you bring me down
There is so much more to life than this
I just cannot say it straight to your face

Falling sideways
Reaching forward
Making tears fall down
Ready to aim
Ready to fight

Complicated
Words in silence
Making tears fall down
Ready to fight
I know that I'm right
