Pleased to meet you
You opened up my eyes
Let me know
What's inside

Wanna know you
Wanna redesign you
Wanna redefine you

Never realised
Every single molecule
Wants to be beside you
And love it.

I've been searching
I've been looking
I've been dyin'
For something new, like you
Like you.

I've been lost in the dark
Trying to find a way to turn in
So much I've broken
So much I've got to learn

And it's not so hard to let down my guard
When I've got you near
I let go of fear
I've got so more to negotiate

Going to put my fate in a better state, yeah.

I've been searching
I've been looking
I've been dyin'
For something new, for something new

I've been waiting
I've been fighting
I've been crying
For something new, like you
Like you.

I've been searching
I've been looking
I've been dyin'
For something new, for something new

I've been waiting
I've been fighting
I've been crying
For something new, like you
Like you.

I've been waiting
I've been fighting
I've been crying
For something new, like you
Like you.
