Any time will do, Please take your pick away
This easy way or that hard way
Let you think about it over and over again
You can't turn back when make a mistake

please make sure, you should be carefully
If worst comes to worst badly
I don't have any responsibility
And you too

I'm separated and I'm bare
But all the time I'm sure to get there
You confusedly feel it's dread
Do touch my cheek I'm still dry

I don't know what is actually right
But you may have quite bad lot please leave the useless stuff and pass a right judgment necessary or not

please make sure, you should be carefully
If worst comes to worst badly
I don't have any responsibility
And you too

I'm separated and I'm bare
But all the time I'm sure to get there
You confusedly feel it's dread
Do touch my cheek I'm still dry

Swinging beats like a night crying!
It's exquisite like a perfect lying!
And fragmented nasty bass line!
Do touch cheek I'm still dry!
