Last night I heard the voice
Through the grass and trees
"Hello sweet little crying bee, please don't make it break down"

Walking down the steps alone
I saw the shining ghost
"Hello sweet little my baby,
please don't say good night to me "

There's a place out on the midtown
Shutdown factories and dead land
I used to see the river flowing through the red and black piles
No one playing over there any more

Last night you watched the sky
Through the smoky glass
"Hello sweet little crying bee,
please believe it for ever"

Going down the slope alone
You saw the shining star
"Hello sweet little my baby,
please don't say good bye to me"

There's a place out on the downtown Broken cars and bikes and wild dogs
You can hear the music flowing through the dull and dusty crowd
No one grieving over there any more

Take me out and let me laugh out
For dancing all night
Till the new day flying down to your town Cheer me up and let us move out
For working all day
Sadly they say here comes the hard times in dark nights

Walking down the steps alone
I saw the shining ghost

"Hello sweet little baby,
please don't say good night to me"

There's a place out on the midtown
Shutdown factories and dead land
I used to see the river flowing
through the red and black piles
No one playing over there any more

No one grieving over there any more
