Little nigga here but I came from a whole lot
So I don't give a fuck if you hate nigga whole lot Man, all of y'all niggas so loud
And I think it's tell amazing
I got niggas fucking with me, I know bitches that do too

Yeah that's ...around my city, ask them bitches that you knew
I'm gonn always judge a nigga by the bitches that you choose
Yeah I keep my circle tight with all those motherfuckers loose
2 cups full of henny for some niggas that I fuck around
With some back bitches that we couldn't fuck with Back when we didn't had fast whips, and the money round with us all
I know they gonna hate tell the motherfucker niggas go hate it
Until them give me space cause the motherfucker nigga so faded
And why the fuck you play me, say you fuckin with me
When I know you fuckin shady
That kirk on, that whip playing, little purp brown
That swish shaying, niggas hating on me, they snaking on me
I'm just saying

[Hook]

I thought you were my friend, my friend, my friend
Turns out that you pretend, pretend, pretend
You hate me on the low
How could you hate me on the low
And I'm like damn, damn
Ain't no way that you could be my nigga or my friend
You hate me on the low
How could you hate me on the low

Tenso all in my benzow, black truck and that blue thang I'm like what the fuck I need friends for All was here when I got bread, never round when his ends low

Fuck you when that money come, don't ever ask for no cents hoe
It's too much bitches here, too much hoes to fuck
Too much fake shit, bitch I'm throwed as fuck
They got so much hate, I got so much love
I can't even fuck with these nigga, no
Old friends I don't fuck with no more
They be hold on my dick and so
Who the fuck is back there
Bunch of fake ass niggas that be tryina act fair
And it's lames as that there
Treat me different, like I wasn't the same as last year
It's playin its black hair, y'all niggas be hating in that there
It's some lame shit, I'm tryina get paid like that there Niggas hating, ...one of my chains to cash, yeah

[Hook]

I thought you were my friend, my friend, my friend
Turns out that you pretend, pretend, pretend
You hate me on the low
How could you hate me on the low
And I'm like damn, damn
Ain't no way that you could be my nigga or my friend
