How's the view outside your window
Cause here the snow has got me down
It's hard to hold on to last summer
When there's two feet on the ground
And I know springs around the corner
So I'm counting down the days

Till' I can...

Kiss you underneath the stars
And hold you in my arms
Never think of ever letting you go if you didn't want me
to
When baby we can talk all night
Pick wild flowers in the moonlight
As the fireflies dance around to the beat of our hearts
Watch that dusk turn into dawn
Stuck in a country love song

Take me back to graduation
With only summer on our minds
Refused to see September coming
Like a freight train on time
You tapped your brake lights as you were leavin'
I prayed that you would be alright

Til' I could

Kiss you underneath the stars
And hold you in my arms
Never think of ever letting you go if you didn't want me
to
When baby we can talk all night
Pick wild flowers in the moonlight
As the fireflies dance around to the beat of our hearts
Watch that dusk turn into dawn
Stuck in a country love song

Outside the snow keeps fallin'
But I can see that summer day

When I can

Kiss you underneath the stars
And hold you in my arms
Never think of ever letting you go if you didn't want me
to
When baby we can talk all night
Pick wild flowers in the moonlight
While the fireflies dance around to the beat of our hearts
Watch that dusk turn into dawn
Stuck in a country love song
