You got a wild child reputation
I bought your lies but my heart's not breaking
That ain't me baby
That's not me
I'm digging deeper and the sun ain't shining
I just can't seem to find your silver lining
I'll find you out baby
I'll find
Your love's like fool's gold
One day I'm rich, the next I'm broke
And you're gone, gone
Your love's like fool's gold
Fills my heart and takes my soul
And you're gone, gone
You best go running when you hear the sirens
When they come, don't you crawl back crying
You should've seen baby
You should'a
But your love's like fool's gold
One day I'm rich, the next I'm broke
And you're gone, gone
Your love's like fool's gold
Fills my heart and takes my soul
And you're gone, gone
So long
I'm gone (her love's like fool's gold)
I'm gone (her love's like fool's gold)
I'm gone (her love's like fool's gold)
